CONSENT TO PERSONAL DATA PROCESSING

Last updated: 4 November 2026

By ticking the consent box when I send a brief on developer.shop, I freely and in my own interest consent to the processing of my personal data on the terms below, under Article 9 of Russian Federal Law No. 152-FZ “On Personal Data”.

1. Controller

1.1. Controller: Individual Entrepreneur Nikolko Vladislav Viktorovich, Russian tax ID (INN) 231295939400, OGRNIP 326237500503819, Krasnodar, Russia, email hello@developer.shop.

2. What data

2.1. My name, email address, project description, desired launch time and the files I attach to the brief.

3. Purpose

3.1. To answer my brief, ask follow-up questions, prepare and send a proposal and, if I decide to work with the controller, prepare an agreement.

4. What is done with the data

4.1. Collection, recording, organisation, storage, correction, use, deletion and destruction, with or without automated means.

4.2. The controller uses Microsoft 365 email to correspond with me, so my name, email address and our correspondence are transferred to Microsoft servers in the United States. I consent to this cross-border transfer.

4.3. Otherwise the controller does not share the data with third parties except where the law requires it.

5. Duration and withdrawal

5.1. This consent lasts until the purpose is reached. If no agreement is signed, the data is deleted within 1 month after the last message.

5.2. I can withdraw this consent at any time by writing to hello@developer.shop. The controller then stops the processing and destroys the data within the time set by law.
